A WORD TO CLUB MEMBERS

From The Chairman

THE Committee, after considerable thought, decided to review our magazine with the object of making it more attractive, and less expensive to produce.

THIS is the first issue, and we hope you like it.

Members are invited to notify the editor of any item of club-news that will appeal to members generally.

THE Committee recently tendered a Complementary Luncheon to the Governor, Sir John Northcott, on his approaching retirement.

The gratitude and thanks of members were expressed to His Excellency for the valuable and unselfish services rendered by him to the community during his term of office.

THE improvements and renovations to the club, outlined by me at the recent annual meeting, are being continued.

Such work, including the painting of ground, first, second and third floors, will necessarily involve some inconvenience to members for a few weeks.

Mr. JOHN HICKEY

This will be minimised as much as possible, and we request members' forbearance.

The club-building is 30 years old this year, and we are endeavouring to have this work completed before the commencement of our Centenary Year (1958).

From Overseas

CAPTAIN ROBERT E. C. JONES, commanding officer of the United States ship, Bennington, sent our chairman the following letter:

"During our recent visit to Sydney, many of my officers and I had the privilege of enjoying the warm hospitality and friendly atmosphere of Tattersall's Club.

"Your consideration in extending honorary membership of the club to Bennington officers was most thoughtful, and is greatly appreciated.

"All officers thoroughly enjoyed their visits to the club.

"Should you or any of your members have occasion to visit the West Coast of the United States, the password will be 'Tattersall's.'

"Please come aboard, and renew old acquaintances."

In another letter from America, Mr. and Mrs. John Kendrick James wrote: "We want to express our deep and sincere appreciation to the members of Tattersall's Club for the wonderful hospitality shown our son, Lieutenant (j.g.) Byron S. James when he was recently in Sydney with the 21st Destroyer Squadron.

"He says that he has never seen such hospitality as was extended to him and other officers of the squadron."

HEARD AROUND THE CLUB

CONGRATULATIONS to John Vandenberg for making a successful debut as a greyhound-owner. John's dog, Four Thirty, won the Final Trial Qualifying Stake (500 yds.) at Harold Park recently. Connections did not get any fancy prices about Four Thirty. In fact, the dogs were barking it. But Four Thirty, who is a white and brindle animal by Arnfinn from Lady Althea, accomplished his task in fine style, shooting well clear nearing the home turn and holding on gamely in the straight to score comfortably. Starting-price was 5/4.

PRESIDENT of the New South Wales Trotting Club, Alton Cusick, hasn't been enjoying the best of health. He was not present to see his pacer, Scotchman, win at Menangle Park, starting at 10/1. We hope news of the win proved something of a tonic for Alton, who has done a great job at the helm of trotting in New South Wales, and was recently re-elected vice-president of the Inter-Dominion Conference. Alton owns Scotchman in partnership with another club member, Bill Dawes. Although Bill is a life-member of the New South Wales Trotting Club, he has never owned a really top-class pacer or trotter and is perhaps more widely known in the galloping sphere. Bill was part-owner of Veiled Threat (two Sydney Cups) and was sole owner of champion filly, Sweet Chime. Sweet Chime was never beaten by a filly of her own age during her entire career. Bill Dawes has owned many other useful performers, including Belmont Park, who made "modern-day" history by winning successive races on the same afternoon at Rosehill.

OFF on a trip to America, Sid White.

IF any member is planning an overseas trip, and wishes to get the latest information on our affiliated clubs, the Secretary would be only too happy to oblige him with full details.

ROY BRYDEN, who is renowned for fluking "longshots," backed every winner at Randwick on Monday, June 17. It could have been a "bonanza" day for Roy, but he only "saved" on last winner, Blazing Star (12/1). Roy's big plunge was on second horse, Luckydale (5/1).

STAN CHATTERTON twice snookered W. I. Hill in one of their many epic struggles in the billiards-room. "And to think," said W.I., "that I just shouted him lunch."

CONGRATULATIONS to Len Haley on his great colt, Tulloch, winning the Q.T.C. Sires' Produce Stakes. Tulloch established a record by winning this important event in Victoria, New South Wales and Queensland. Len Haley is a true lover of the turf, and to watch Tulloch go from success to success has given him great satisfaction.

GERSH FIENBERG is taking things quietly after his bout of illness, but he drops into the Club occasionally and is always assured of a warm welcome from his many friends.

ENGLAND'S Rugby League players took advantage of the Club's swimming pool and athletic department to condition themselves for their matches.

OFF on business to the United States—Keith McWilliam, Sol. Goldberg.

ON the sick list, Newcastle Tattersall's Club Committeeman, Stan Steggles.

BACK from a trip to America, Phil Malouf.

THAT excellent bowler, Jack Eaton, won the final of the Double Bay singles handicap. Handicapped on three behind—the lowest mark in the club—Jack defeated John Kellaway (plus one) 31-28. Jack has won the Double Bay championship three years running.

LEO KEATING was beaten by Charlie Lavigne in the first round of the club's snooker tournament. Friends recalled that Leo in former days was a force to be reckoned with in a billiard-room. He won the Softgoods snooker tournament in Melbourne in 1931.

STAYING at the club for a few days was Robert McLeish, president of the Green Room Club, Melbourne.

A. G. CONNOLLY'S daughter, Pat—a former sister at St. Vincent's Hospital—had a daughter at Newcastle. A. G. thus became a grandfather for the first time.

A. G. CONNOLLY'S son, Des, who is himself a member, was married last month. Des had his last "fling" with the "boys" at a bachelor-party in the club.

MR. AND MRS. TOM COX, of Jervis Bay, held a big party in the club's dining-room, the occasion being Tom's birthday.

ANOTHER member to celebrate his birthday in the dining-room was Arthur McCamley, who is well-known on the third floor.

PHIL HASSETT'S daughter, Mary, is off to England, where her husband has been transferred for two years. Mary has been living in Melbourne. When in Sydney she likes to accompany her father to Tattersall's Club dance-nights. Both are very proficient dancers.

JUDGE HOLDEN and wife have returned from a holiday at Sussex Inlet. Many of our members take a vacation there.

TOM FLYNN ricked his back while attending to foals by Bold Buccaneer at his Oakleigh Stud. The back had to be strapped, inconveniencing Tom slightly in his movements around the club. Tom placed himself in the hands of the club's masseur, and is all praise for that fellow's ability.

INCIDENTALLY, club member T. B. Dwyer (not the bookmaker) has just returned from an overseas trip, and showed Tom Flynn a cutting from a Toronto (Canada) newspaper. The article described how yearlings by "new" sires—America's Flying Missel and England's Bold Buccaneer—had sold well at the Australian sales. It's nice to know that Canadians keep touch with our racing industry.

THE STORY OF GLOAMING

AN unraced three-year-old gelding "gate-crashed" his way to fame in a series of brilliant track-trials.

They were the most extraordinary trials famous Royal Randwick had ever witnessed, and there has been none like them since.

The bay gelding had little in appearance to suggest the champion, but CHAMPION he soon proved himself, with capital letters.

He had been registered in New Zealand as Celestial.

Now his name had been changed to Gloaming.

The year was 1918.

The trials were organised at the instigation of owners and trainers.

The Epsom, Derby and Metropolitan and all the other glamour races of the Spring carnival were due soon.

And, because of a coal strike, only essential train services were run.

So the important meetings at Warwick Farm and Rosehill, which were the stepping-stones to the classics, were abandoned.

Trainers could see no way of getting their horses fit for the great events until somebody had a brain-wave, and suggested the trials at Randwick—with colors up, and under race-conditions.

All the best horses of the day were nominated, and fields of 20 ran.

One trial-field embraced 1917 Derby winner, Biplane, and the Epsom winner of the same year, Satin Bird.

There is Tattersall's Club interest in Satin Bird.

He was raced by "Mr. W. T. Nowlan". This was the nom-de-course of Mr. W. Longworth and Mr. T. Longworth, father of our present S.T.C. committeeman, Mr. Bill Longworth.

But about that particular time, "Young Bill" was more interested in making himself a swimming champion, rather than the racing authority he has now become.

Another coincidence about this trial-day was that another young man—later to become a popular committeeman of Tattersall's—was present. The young man—Mr. A. G. Collins—was already a horse-lover, even at that early age.

Who should beat this field of cracks, but the un-raced Gloaming—late Celestial—with his four-year-old stable-mate, Biplane, second.

Naturally, eyes goggled. A maiden had outsped some of the best horses on the turf scene.

From that moment Gloaming showed superlative speed in trials, and in one of his seven-furlongs gallops he clocked 1.25.

The race-record then was 1.26, but Gloaming made his 1.25 with working-shoes on his feet.

People wondered what he would have done wearing the so much lighter racing-tips.

Well, he soon showed them.

For the first race of his career—on our Club's Chelmsford-Stakes day—this maiden was sent out second favourite at 7/2.

"MONARCH" OF TRACKWORKERS

He won, said the judge, by eight lengths, but it could have been 12.

In newspaper pictures of the day, no other horses were visible.

And whom do you think were second and third?

ONLY Rebus, winner of the Epsom a fortnight hence, and Kennaquhair, who took the Metropolitan.

Well, that was Gloaming—the greatest galloper ever to grace the training-tracks of Randwick in my career of timing horses.

Gloaming went on to win our Derby a few weeks later, then the two New Zealand Derbies.

This great speedster thrust his way on to complete a marvellous record of 57 wins from 67 starts.

In nine of the defeats he was never worse than second.

His only other defeat was when a New Zealand barrier caught under his chin as he leapt out too swiftly, and threw him on his back.

This Gloaming—the mighty speedster—still holds the world race-record for half a mile, 45 seconds.

By - - -

C. J. GRAVES, of the Daily and Sunday Telegraph.

And he won from that distance up to one and a half miles.

Not only was he a top speedster, but he was also a thoroughbred of enduring vitality.

He raced on until he was nine years old, and at that ripe old age he won his last eight contests against the top Australian and New Zealand champions.

I hope I've convinced you that Gloaming was the best track galloper I ever saw at Randwick.

But I must confess that Phar Lap rarely galloped there.

He probably could have shown us something "out-of-the-box", but moved to Melbourne when he reached the apex of his fame.

A great galloper of the Gloaming era was Beauford, who contested four notable Spring weight-for-age events with Gloaming.

Beauford won the Chelmsford (9 f.) and Colin Stephen Stakes (1½ m.).

Gloaming took the Hill Stakes (1 m.) and Craven Plate (10 f.), which made them a "line-ball".

Beauford was never a "flash" track worker, but during this "match-period" with Gloaming, he did a surprise seven-furlongs trial, which closely approached Gloaming's record, 1.25.

Beauford took 1.25½.

It was just after he had beaten Gloaming in the Colin Stephen, and after such a race he needed nothing but a sustaining condition-gallop.

But the boy "went mad" and bedevilled him all the way through the trial.

It left Beauford a tired flattened horse for the final contest two days later against Gloaming, and track-observers were not surprised to see Gloaming beat him and even the score, making it two wins all.

Beauford was a lean, hungry-looking, brown gelding who had been reared in a drought-year, and never put on flesh.

But what a galloper!

Raised in lush paddocks, he might have been a Gloaming or a Phar Lap.

NO HAS-BEEN

Bill Longworth recently had his first game of golf for eight years. He had been asked to present prizes at a Stamina golf-day at Glenmore Country Club.

He had no intention of playing.

However, Bill was prevailed upon to "have a go" so he sallied forth. All his clubs were borrowed except for a "wood"—a favorite of his from former days.

Alas, Bill struck trouble on the first tee. One swing with the "wood," and it fell apart.

It was entitled to the pension, anyhow.

Undeterred, Bill went on to score an 89 off-the-stick.

They had given the "veteran" a generous handicap, and, really, he was a clear winner. But, like the great sportsman he is, Bill tore up his card, and went ahead presenting the prizes as though nothing had happened. For those who don't remember, Bill Longworth was one of Australia's champion amateur golfers. He won two A.I.F. Cups, and on occasions he had better rounds than the professionals.

CLASH OF SPORTS CHAMPIONS

LEN PALFREYMAN and Les Fingleton—two members with fine sporting records—clashed in the first round of the club's snooker tournament.

Len will long be remembered as an outstanding Rugby Union forward.

He played 136 grade games for Randwick Club from 1924 to 1934.

From 1929 to 1933 Len represented New South Wales, while he had the honour of playing for Australia in 1929 (against New Zealand), 1930 (against Great Britain) and 1931-32 (against New Zealand).

Nowadays Len is an enthusiastic member of the Coogee Penguins—that group of characters who persist in showing us how tough they are by plunging into the chilly winter water.

In this respect, Len's snooker opponent, Les Fingleton, is somewhat similar.

Les is one of the stalwarts of the Bondi Icebergs.

He has excelled in various sports.

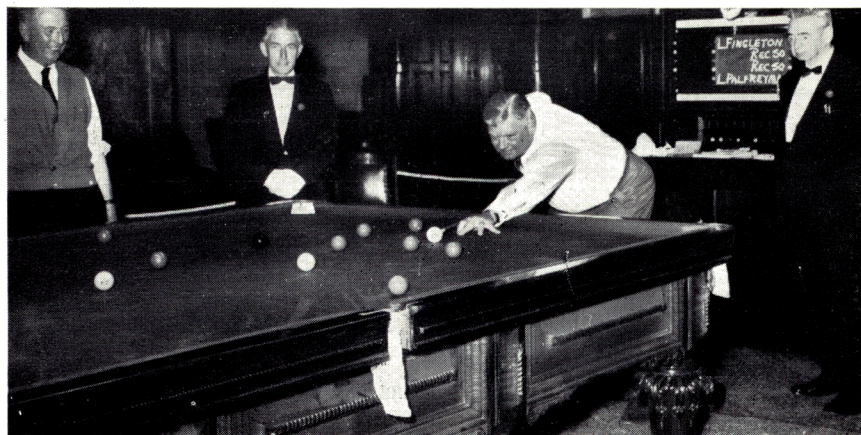

The brother of international cricketer, Jack Fingleton, Les admits he was no champion in this sphere. But he played first-grade with Jack for Waverley, and assisted that club for many years in an executive capacity.

In football, Les played first-grade Rugby Union and Rugby League for Eastern Suburbs, mainly as a five-eighth.

As a bowler (Sir Francis Drake-type), Les combined with Joe Harris to win Tattersall's Club pairs championship.

He also won the New South Wales

THEY MET IN THE FIRST ROUND

Len Palfreyman plays a stroke, watched by his opponent, Les Fingleton

Golf Club bowls singles title, defeating another of our members, Elgar Collins.

Despite all these achievements, it was as a handball player that Les Fingleton gained most honours.

In handball, he won the Australian and New South Wales championships.

Oh, yes, we nearly forgot to tell you who won the snooker match.

Len won by 94 to 68.

The result was something of a surprise. A few minutes previously Les had shown brilliant form in a social match upstairs against Ted Abbott. During this social game Les was "coached" in almost professional style by Jack Hession.

HISTORY OF TABLE

THE billiard-table, at present being used for our club tournaments on the first floor, has quite a history.

It was used for the world billiards championship, played in Sydney in 1938.

On it, Walter Lindrum retained his world title by defeating New Zealand champion, Clarke McConachy, by 18,349 points to 14,121.

Highest break was Lindrum's 1,445.

Club member Percy Smith—a director of the famous firm, Heiron and Smith—considers that Tattersall's Club's table is one of the most handsome ever made.

THE QUEEN HONOURED HIM

The Queen's Birthday Honours List revealed that a Tattersall's Club member had been made a Knight Commander of the Order of St. Michael and St. George.

He is Senator the Honourable Sir Alister McMullin.

The K.C.M.G. was in recognition of Sir Alister's distinguished service as President of the Senate since September, 1953.

Born at Scone on July 14, 1900, Sir Alister has been a member of Tattersall's Club since March, 1936.

MORE ABOUT MEMBERS

JUST out of hospital, George Brown.

CLIFF SALMON had to enter hospital for observation, and his many friends hope he will soon be back with them.

NORMAN WHITE and Stan Stewart returned from a trip to Bowen Island, Jervis Bay, with a "whale" of a fish-story. It seems Norman was casting one day when the bait, with a peculiar, distinctive hook, snapped off the line. Well, apparently a 9 lb. snapper swallowed the bait after it snapped off. Next day Norman says he got the "thrill of a lifetime" by landing this 9 lb. snapper with a light line of only 9 lb. breaking-strain. In the end the line did break, but Norman luckily had just bent down and grabbed the "monster." Inside he found the peculiar hook. Stan Stewart swears the story is true.

BY the way, Bowen Island is leased from the Government by club member Malcolm Fuller. Malcolm and his wife are renowned for being expert spear-fishermen. Mrs. Fuller's ambition is to spear a 32 lb. kingfish. She reckons anything bigger would drag her out to sea.

EVERYTHING seems to happen to David Bloomfield whenever the Monash Golf Club championship looms in sight. This year David stripped a tendon off his shin-bone the day before the title began. In desperation, David turned to injections and ray-treatment. But they were to no avail, because he could not pivot properly, and David (with 85, 87) failed to get among the 16 qualifiers, who had totals of 166 and better.

FOUR years ago at championship-time, David injured his shoulder, and was in a splint for six months. Next year he was dangerously ill. The following year saw him with a slipped disc. Actually, last year was the only time David got through "Scot-free". He was beaten in the semi-finals by the fellow who went on to win the championship. David plays off a handicap of seven.

JACK DAVIS—a keen bowler—realised one of his greatest ambitions when he was selected in Double Bay's A-pennant team. But the match was postponed. So Jack went to the races—and lost.

OFF on his second round-the-world trip is our importing friend, Jack Lloyd. Incidentally Jack is "tickled pink" about a golfing win. Boyd Lane (handicap of seven) and Jack (6) defeated Mel Watson (3) and a non-club member at the 18th green of the Australian Club, Kensington. It was the first time Jack had finished in front of Mel, whom he regards as one of the best amateur golfers in the State.

STUART ADAMS has returned from Adelaide where he represented New South Wales food processors at a food convention.

MEMBERS needing advice in the gardening-sphere invariably get in touch with Gerry Tayler. Gerry is recognised throughout Australia as a top authority on the mango.

ANYBODY who wants to know the fishing-spots of Queensland should contact Bill de Bovis. Every winter Bill heads north. And nearly every year he makes his "headquarters" at a different place. This year Bill waited for the rains to come, and his departure is a bit later than usual.

GEORGE WEBSTER does not play in the club snooker or billiards tournaments these days. But he reckons he holds a club record, in reverse. George recalled how Hans Robertson once snookered him 13 times in a row during a snooker semi-final. George had won the first of the three games, but who can continue to win when faced with 13 successive snookers?

PHIL and Mrs. Roach were interested spectators at the World Cup Rugby League matches. Mrs. Roach asked: "Why did the referee blow his whistle?" Phil replied: "My dear, 50,000 people are as puzzled as you are."

PROUD DINING RECORD

A TOTAL of 27,574 luncheons and 30,437 dinners were served in the club's popular dining-room on the fourth floor during the financial year, ended February 28.

The dining-room was closed for renovations from July 14 to August 21.

Guests are invariably lavish in their praise of our dining-room.

Reached by fast, smooth elevators, the room is particularly attractive, and features delightful new colour-schemes.

Upon entering, the guest is immediately aware of the spirit of courtesy prevailing among the staff.

In fact, nothing is too much trouble for them.

The impressive, tastefully-selected menu has been compared favorably with its counterparts throughout the world.

But perhaps you fancy some unusual dish which does not appear on the menu.

A word to the head-waiter, and your problem is solved, because our chef prides himself on being able to provide all types of special dishes.

Tattersall's Club boasts an ultra-modern kitchen, with excellent equipment, giving every facility for quick service.

Meals are brought to you in electrically-heated food-mobiles.

There are numerous other advantages of dining at Tattersall's Club.

Floral bouquets can be ordered for special functions.

We have a wide range of wines and liqueurs. Many of our stewards have attended a special wine-waiter's course.

The views from the dining-room windows are truly magnificent. To gaze upon such beauty adds considerably to the guest's general satisfaction.

The dining-room is open for luncheon from 12.30 p.m. to 2.15 p.m., Mondays to Fridays, inclusive.

For dinner, the hours are 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Thursday and Saturday nights are "dance-nights", when dinner is served from 6 p.m. until 8.30 p.m., and dancing continues to 11 p.m.

Special "concert-nights", featuring top-flight artists, are held once a month.

Next "concert-night" will be on Saturday, July 27.

Bookings are being taken now.

THE "SAMBA" BIRTHDAY

HAVE you ever heard "Happy Birthday To You" sung by a group of people as they danced a Samba?

Well, it happened in our dining-room last month.

Club member Wilfred Aitkenhead once gave a birthday-party in the dining-room to his nine-year-old son, Gregory.

The "cake" on that occasion was an attractive Bombe Alaska, elaborately decorated by the club chef.

Last month saw the birthday of Wilfred's 11-year-old daughter, Wendy.

As the day drew near, Wendy exclaimed: "Daddy, I've had some nice birthday parties, but none of them was as good as the one you gave Gregory at Tattersall's Club."

It took only a phone-call to House Manager Mr. C. A. Cornwell, and everything was arranged.

The plan was for the band to play "Happy Birthday To You" as the cake was brought in.

Unfortunately, the cake made its entrance while a Samba was in progress. The whole affair seemed likely to fall a bit flat.

But the pianist grasped the situation at a glance, and changed the tune.

Soon all the dancers were singing "Happy Birthday To You" to the tempo of a Samba.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

THE secretary, Mr. Dawson, has received a letter acknowledging "receipt of the sum of £1,379, representing money collected by Mr. Sam Peters and yourself on behalf of the Benefit Race Meeting held at Randwick Racecourse on May 22."

The letter was from joint honorary secretaries of the meeting, Messrs. W. N. Parry-Okeden and L. V. Lachal.

How the Club's Billiards and Snooker Tournaments are going

VINCE KIRBY—winner of the club's snooker handicap tournament last year—has started brilliantly in this year's event.

In the first round of the snooker, Vince (who is handicapped on 25, compared with 40 last year) defeated John Monaro (handicapped on 50) by 134 to 74.

This means that Kirby scored 109 in a single frame—probably a club tournament record.

Vince's score was boosted considerably by Monaro's bad luck.

John gave away nearly 50 points through fouls, in-offs, and failure to get out of snookers.

Close friends, Bill Askew and S. O. Beilby, had the misfortune to clash in the first round, with Bill winning 98-77.

Peter McGrath and Norman White also were unlucky to be opponents in the first round, Norman winning 101-73.

They are opponents in many social matches "upstairs," where the honours are fairly even.

There were many spectators to watch bookmaker Ted Abbott clash with trainer Jack Green. Ted played above himself, winning by 127 to 62.

Bill Longworth's match with Norman Jacobs was a thrilling affair. Many critics doubted whether Bill (who is handicapped on five) could concede 45 start to Norman, who is a wily player and never makes a silly mistake. However, Bill gradually reduced the leeway, and won 93-86.

Izzy Silk hit his hoppers smartly. He received 15 start from Bill Waterhouse, and went on to win 112-61.

Jack O'Neill—a former tournament winner—does not get enough practice nowadays to do justice to his low handicap of 20, and Senator Armstrong (rec. 55) defeated Jack 92-56.

Boyd Lane had a gigantic tussle with Jack Barrett, with Jack, who had an advantage of 20 in the handicaps, emerging victorious by 76 to 74.

There are not many more fluent cueists in the club than Fred Vockler, who produced some of his old-time wizardry to defeat Dr. Seamonds 110-63 after starting off 25 behind his opponent.

Young John Hickey, who plays well enough "upstairs" to win any tournament from his handicap of 50, defeated Ray Maher 97-83.

Hans Robertson (rec. 5) conceded a big start to "Digger" Hutchinson (rec. 60). Hans had to call on all his tricks to win 96-92.

The meeting of George Mousally and former winner, Eric Westhoff, both on a handicap of 15, drew a large gallery. George was too good on the day, winning 69-42.

Ken Ranger (rec. 40) and Johnny Norton (rec. 10) had everybody biting their fingernails. It was a case of black-to-win. Ken missed the black completely, and the game went to Johnny.

Mr. Justice Dovey (rec. 55) got a long way behind Doug Lotherington (rec. 60) in the early stages, but unwound a sustained finishing burst to win 107-96.

New member Sid Lane (rec. 40) was particularly impressive in defeating J. N. Caldwell (rec. 35) 111-68. Caldwell was not in touch, but Sid revealed tremendous potting ability.

Hughie Elliott (rec. 52) got away to a flying start against former tournament winner Sam Peters (rec. 32). Sam finished strongly, but Hughie held too big an advantage, winning 86-75.

BILLIARDS

Jack Chown (rec. 30) struck a "purple patch" in his first-round match of the billiards tournament against H. H. Robinson (rec. 100).

Jack had breaks of 80 and 48, and won 250-189.

First-round "thrillers" were the Mel Watson-Jack O'Neill and John Hickey-Joe Harris clashes.

Jack (rec. 10) defeated Mel (rec. 80) by 250 to 246, while Joe Harris (rec. 100) forged to the front only in the last stride to account for John Hickey (rec. 120) by 250 to 246.

The strange feature of this match was that Joe and John had figured in an epic finish in a previous year.

Ken Fidden (rec. 115) is known more as a top-class snooker potter, but he excelled in the first round of the billiards. Off 115 start, Ken defeated T. S. Woodbridge (rec. 90) by 250 to 152.

Bob Mead (rec. 125) is never an easy opponent. But he surprised even his admirers by the way he accounted for the capable Harold Hill by 250 to 209.

Bill Longworth (owes 80) was too experienced for Ralph Davies (rec. 85), winning by 250 to 138.

Cyril Oswald-Sealy (rec. 85) had a great tussle with John Monaro (rec. 105), but scraped home by 250 to 240.

John Peoples has started well in both snooker and billiards. In the billiards, receiving 110, he drew away from Jack Pick (rec. 100) to win 250-142.

FIRST BIG TROPHY

"BERNBOROUGH" FINISH IN BOWLS AT DOUBLE BAY

THE PERKINS CUP

ANNUAL MEETING OF BOWLERS

TATTERSALL'S CLUB bowlers held their annual meeting on Tuesday, June 18.

The previous year's officials were all re-elected unanimously.

Our president, Gordon Booth, declared it the most successful year, both socially and financially, in the club's history.

Presentations were made to the president, and honorary auditor Harold Quinton in appreciation of their services to the bowling section of the club.

The treasurer, in his report, revealed that the bowling club had 171 financial members, and had a credit balance of £280.

IN a sensational finish, Tattersall's Club bowlers won their first major trophy at Double Bay on June 12.

In the final of the Perkins Cup we beat Pymble by 48 to 41, and thus became holders of the Cup for the next 12 months.

Early in the game Tattersall's was leading on the sixth end by eight shots.

Harold Hill's team then lost 12 consecutive ends, and went from a 9-3 lead to a 29-9 deficit.

Meanwhile, Jack O'Neill's rink, by solid bowls, was 17-13 in the lead, with only four ends to play.

Thus, with four ends each to play, we were trailing by 17 shots.

It looked as though Pymble was "home and hosed".

O'Neill won his last four ends to gain seven shots, leaving us still wanting 11 shots in Hill's last four ends to win.

With a paralysing finish, Harold's team got a three on the 22nd, two on the 23rd, a seven on the 24th and three on the last, played in the dark, to bring us out winners by seven points.

In scoring 21 points in the last four ends, our bowlers showed they are at their best in a fighting finish.

RESULTS: B. Harris, A. M. Duncan, G. Penny, E. Howell (Pymble) 28 v. A. Buckle, K. Williams, J. Eaton, H. Hill (Tattersall's) 24; A. Leal, C. Michinson, F. Aaron, A. Michinson (Pymble) 13 v. A. Kippax, G. Booth, C. Emanuel, J. O'Neill (Tattersall's) 24.

Best players for Tattersall's: A. Buckle, J. O'Neill.

TATTERSALL'S SCORES NARROWLY AT PYMBLE

AT Pymble on May 26 six rinks of triples were entertained by Pymble bowlers.

After a very enjoyable afternoon, Tattersall's was successful by four shots.

SCORES: Tattersall's 118; Pymble 114.

Results: J. Hackett, J. Pick, K. Ranger (Tattersall's) 21 d.; Garling, Saunton, Kierle (Pymble) 10; F. Empson, E. A. Davis, H. Hill, 36 d.; W. Connolly, G. Anderson, W. Hogarth, 6; E. Thorn, S. Peters, P. J. Schwarz, 18 lost to Apted, Stone, Scrivener, 22; R. Bartley, F. Vockler, F. L. Williams, 8, lost to Harris, Chalmers, Lewin, 32; W. Hutchinson, A. Buckle, C. Emanuel, 16, lost to M. Wallington, R. Washington, G. Howell, 20; J. Shaffran, S. M. Norton, K. F. Williams, 23, lost to A. Leal, Penney, V. Cleary, 25.

At the 19th, a toast was proposed to Jim Hackett, on his 62nd birthday, by the president, Bill Hogarth, and an invitation for a return-match was extended to us.

Best two performances of the month:—Jack Eaton's perfect display in the semi-final of the Perkins Cup against Coogee and Vic Bear's win in the trophy triples on May 23.

It was Vic's first game as skipper, and he beat some of our "big time" skippers in the process.

One of our most improved bowlers is Reg Bartley.

A regular player with the club, his game savours of real first-class tuition.

Keep it up, Reg, and a promotion by the selectors will soon be at hand.

Vic Richards won his first trophy, with J. Monro and Reg Bartley.

Sid Lane also notched his first trophy.

It shows how the popular triples, with an open draw, can distribute the trophies.

Also new players can enjoy their game with the more advanced players and not spoil the latter's game.

July could be a lean month for bowlers, as quite a few of our regulars are going up to Surfers'.

One team to nominate for the bowling carnival is A. Buckle, C. Cohen, Mel Watson and F. L. Williams.

If they retain their present form they will go very close to the money up there.

Gordon Booth, F. Empson, Noel Hough, Ken Ranger, Jack Pick and Ken Williams are also spending July there, but will be playing only social bowls, and enjoying the warmer climate.

F. Empson, E. A. Davis and Harold Hill combined well at Pymble.

Their victory of 34 to 6 was the deciding factor.

The only other team to win out of the six was Jim Hackett, Jack Pick and Ken Ranger, with a good margin of 11.

An effort worthy of praise was Ken Williams' win by two after being down 23-3 on the 13th end.

Last to finish (as always) his finishing run to get eight shots in the last four ends turned defeat into victory.

Keen Rivalry for Swim Title

ARTHUR ALSOP and Keith Longworth are turning on a really thrilling contest for the "Native Son" trophy presented annually for the season's Point Score by popular Bill Kirwan.

Early in the season Keith had the lead but for quite a while Arthur has been on top. However, with three events to be swum to complete the 1956/57 season his lead has been whittled down to only four points.

The two are very evenly matched on handicaps. A couple of events ago they met and tied for second place in a final. A week later, Longworth beat Alsop by a clipped finger nail.

So everything is set for an exciting end to a very successful year and a bit of luck either way may help a lot.

In this regard Alsop has not been fortunate as his team has been disqualified in Brace Relays twice through the early getaway of his partner. In his last Relay when Geoff Eastment appeared to have the final all sewn up on heat times, the latter could not appear and Arthur had to take a substitute partner and only finished third.

Third in the "Native Son" and certain to hold that position at the finishing post is Clive Hoole who won the May-June Point Score and made it two for the season.

They say that Cuth. Godhard has been in training under one of the A.S.A. coaches in the Pool and, judging from his recent 40 yard win in 25.7 off a 27 secs. handicap, there must be some truth in the rumour. At any rate, he put up a good performance in finishing only half a point behind Hoole in the Point Score.

If ever there was a sure thing beaten it was Stu. Murray in the same series. Level with Hoole with a race to go and up a second on handicap, he looked the best of good things. Unaccountably, however, he could only swim third in a heat in, for him, very slow time and was relegated to third place in the Point Score.

Fred Harvie has been after an extra second all the season but he is certainly not going the right way to get it. He's been in three of the last five finals. On June 18 he won his first final of the season with a magnificent finish.

Had a line from Dick Dowling from New York. He's keeping up his swimming and tells of having a couple of swims in the pool at the Ambassadors Hotel.

The last month or so has been a busy one for Pool grandpas.

Peter Lindsay has become a grandpa for the first time. His daughter had a daughter.

Now Don Wilson's daughter has presented her husband, club member Jim Blau, with a son and, believe us, Don was really tickled pink when the grandson was named Donald.

Handicapper Jack Gunton is now in the band, son Geoff's wife having given birth to a son.

Handicap losing efforts last month were headed by George Goldie who lost a couple of seconds with a freak swim whilst Hoole and Godhard lost one each.

Still, the best, or worst, effort was by Brice and Hoole in taking two and a half seconds off their time in winning a Relay.

Best times of the month were:—20.8 by Keith Longworth, 21.7 by Bob Harris and 21.8 by Arthur Alsop.

The last handicap event of the season will be a 40 yards dash on Tuesday, July 9, but a week later, July 16, the Club Championships heats over 40 yards will be held with the final on Thursday, July 18. All intending competitors, and a big field is expected, should note these dates.

Results

May 21:—80 yards Brace Relay Handicap: C. Hoole and J. C. Brice (49) 1, J. Adams and S. Murray (49) 2, F. Harvie and C. Godhard (49) 3. Time, 46.5 secs.

May 28:—40 yards Handicap: 1st Division Final: J. Riddell (32) 1, G. Goldie (38) 2, P. Lindsay (25) 3. Time, 31.3 secs. 2nd Division Final: C. Hoole (25) 1, H. Herman (28) 2, R. Harris (22) 3. Time, 23.5 secs.

June 4:—80 yards Brace Relay Handicap: W. Kendall and S. Murray (45) 1, K. Longworth and C. Godhard (48) 2, C. Bowes and J. Riddell (57) 3. Time, 43.2 secs.

June 11:—40 yards Handicap: 1st Division Final: C. Godhard (27) 1, A. Alsop (22) and K. Longworth (21) 2. Time, 26.9 secs. 2nd Division Final: A. McCamley (30) 1, H. Herman (28) 2, F. Harvie (22) 3. Time, 29.2 secs.

June 18:—80 yards Brace Relay Handicap: F. Harvie and H. Herman (50) 1, C. Bowes and K. Longworth (46) 2, A. Alsop and A. McCamley (52) 3. Time, 49.4 secs.

May-June Point Score

Final result: C. Hoole 25, 1; C. Godhard 24½, 2; S. Murray 23, 3; H. Herman 22, 4; K. Longworth 19½, 5; A. McCamley 19, 6; F. Harvie 18½, 7; C. Bowes 18, 8; P. Lindsay 16½, 9; J. Riddell 16, 10; A. Alsop 15½, 11; G. Goldie 14, 12; F. L. Bowes, C. L. Bear, G. Laforest and R. Harris 13, 15.

"Native Son" Point Score

With three events to complete this Point Score for all points scored during the 1956-57 season, the leaders are: A. Alsop 165, K. Longworth 161, C. Hoole 149½, J. Comans 136½, C. L. Bear 135, A. McCamley 129½, G. Laforest 126½, C. Bowes 124½, F. L. Bowes 122½, P. Lindsay 117½, S. Murray 114½, H. Herman 114, F. Harvie 112½, E. D. Shaw 108½, G. Goldie 108, S. Kay 106½, G. Boulton 104, C. Godhard 103, T. Abernethy 91½, T. Barrell 85, S. Sernack 82½, R. Corrick 81½, R. Stanford 80½, K. Francis 73, R. Harris 72, J. O. Dexter 71, J. Shaffran 68, N. Barrell 65½, G. Eastment 62, R. Dowling 60½, W. Kendall 59, A. Carthew 59, V. Thicknesse 56½, F. Muller 54, M. Fuller 50.

Handball Events at Interesting Stage

CLUB championship matches in all grades are progressing very satisfactorily.

Results are:

"A" GRADE

Bruce Partridge d. Peter Williams, 21-11, 21-17.

Fred Harvie d. Clarrie Woodfield, 21-14, 21-10.

Tom Abernethy d. George McGilvray (forfeit).

George McGilvray has been on the sick list, and had to forfeit to Tom Abernethy.

The members and committee were very disappointed because George is a past champion and a great chap.

We expected him to go close to regaining his title this season.

George is now making rapid progress, and will be back in the game later in the season.

Fred Harvie showed his best form for some time by defeating Clarrie Woodfield. Fred always appeared to be in command.

"B" GRADE

This grade has reached the semi-final stage.

Results are:

Bill Kirwan d. Gordon Boulton, 21-16, 21-11.

Eric Thompson d. Bob Adams, 21-8, 21-8.

Ralph Davies d. Col Chatterton, 21-19, 21-10.

Ralph Davies d. Neil Barrell, 17-21, 21-11, 21-14.

Malcolm Fuller d. Ken Francis, 21-13, 21-15.

Malcolm Fuller d. R. O. Cummings (forfeit).

Matches were fairly even, the best being between Ralph Davies and Neil Barrell. This went to three sets. Neil won the first, but could not sustain his effort. Ralph must be commended for a good win.

Malcolm Fuller played right up to his best form to win from "C" grade champion of last year, Ken Francis. Ken is hard to beat, but Malcolm was relentless.

R. O. Cummings had to withdraw because of a bad back.

Bill Kirwan had his "big serve" working well against Gordon Boulton, and had a comfortable win.

Eric Thompson was too consistent for Bob Adams, and here again the win was a comfortable one.

Contestants for the semi-finals are: Bill Kirwan v. Eric Thompson; Malcolm Fuller v. Ralph Davies.

"C" GRADE

"C" graders are going on their merry way, enjoying every match.

Players are keen, and results are: Keith Longworth d. John Brice, 21-19, 22-20.

Leigh Bowes d. Ron Spencer, 21-15, 21-17.

Leigh Bowes d. Keith Longworth, 21-17, 21-12.

Collin Bowes d. Geoff Laforest, 21-6, 21-8.

George Goldie d. Sid Kay, 21-10, 21-11.

Jim Comans d. Jim Maloney, 16-21, 21-9, 21-16.

Trevor Borrell d. Clifford Shaffran, 6-21, 21-18, 21-17.

Trevor Borrell must have had stage fright in the first set of his match against Clifford Shaffran. Clifford had almost a "walk-over," losing only six points.

However, Trevor recovered his balance, and won the next two in fine style. Well done, Trevor.

Collin Bowes had an easy win over Geoff Laforest, and it would not surprise if Collin gave this grade championship a real "shake."

His brother, Leigh Bowes, has had two nice wins—one over Ron Spencer and the other over Keith Longworth.

There will be some great games before this competition is finalised.

VALE

ERNEST B. BROWN

Elected 23/9/1925

Died 25/5/1957

Mr. Ernest Brown, general manager of Whakatane Board Mills, collapsed and died on the Rotorua racecourse.

In a tribute, Whakatane Board Mills' Chairman of Directors, Mr. G. H. Mackley, said Mr. Brown was to have been named as managing-director at a board meeting on the Thursday after his death.

Mr. Brown, more than anyone else, was responsible for the recent growth and development of the mills, and was a most worthy successor to the late Henry Horrocks, the mills' founder, Mr. Mackley said.
